Also, any company mentioned may have been provided with section of this content prior to its publication to verify its factual accuracy and the content may have been amended after that, if necessary. The Agency may to the extent permitted by law, have acted upon or used the information contained herein, or the research or analysis on which it was based, before its publication.

The Alethena rating consists of an independent and thorough opinion on the different initial coin offerings based on the documentation provided by the companies and with regard to the application of the current best practices in the following key areas:

- I. Business (Overview, Market, Product, Target Operating Model, Vision);
- II. Technical (Overview, Technical Flexibility, Vulnerability, Sustainability);
- III. Legal (Overview, Regulatory Compliance, Environment, Geography, Legal Setup);
- IV. Governance (Overview, People, Planning Transparency, Funding Transparency, Code Transparency, Cooperation)

The Alethena rating does not consist of an audit in any kind or a legal opinion, neither do we give any advice.

In preparation of this content different valuation methods have been used including but not limited to discounted free cash-flow and comparative analysis. The selection of methods depends on different circumstances. This content is amended periodically, once a month/quarter or more often if required and it is not being introduced to the issuers of Tokens/Coins before its publication. The research analysts responsible for the preparation of this content receive compensation, based upon various factors, including quality and accuracy of the research, client feedback, competitive factors, and overall Agency's revenues. Agency's overall revenues include revenues from its rating services and investor subscription business. The analysts do not own Tokens/Coins of the company mentioned in this content.
